This Paper One Year. Farm Journal. Five Years.

Pay up and get Both Papers for the Price of One.

We want to get 1,000 subscribers to our paper by New Year's, and are going to do it if we can; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal by which we can send THE NEWS one year and the Farm Journal 5 years, both for 50c. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

You know what our paper is and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of gumption, full of sunshine, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. YOU OUGHT TO TAKE IT.

CAROLINE CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

Wal. Briggs told me not to write this week, but I just told him I was going to write. I knowed the people wanted to hear from this place again. Wal, when I seen that piece from Union Grove last week I just wondered and wondered who on the top side of this earth had got up such a thing as that from over there. Wal, I wonder if that will be a piece from over there this week.

Oh! I tell you this place over here is booming anyhow. Wal, I guess we had better stop our tomfoolery and try to think of something else to write hadn't we, Briggs.

When Briggs sees this in the paper this week won't he laugh.

Mr. Tom Billingsley and wife were visiting at U. G. Harris' Sunday.

Mr. Sidney Ketter and Miss Mattie Jordan attended the singing school Saturday night.

Miss Ollie Vinzant attended church at Bethel Sunday.

Miss Mary Pitman and sister, Miss Kate, were visiting at Walker Layne's Saturday.

Mr. Lee Cates was visiting at U. G. Harris' Sunday.

Miss Kate Lewis went to Jasper Saturday.

Bill Griffith and Miss Ruth Knox were married Sunday at H. D. Barklin's.

Mr. B. Alder attended church at Oak Grove Sunday.

Mr. Barney Ellis was visiting at J. H. Vinzant's Friday night.

Madame Rumer says there is going to be another wedding soon.

Mr. Daniel Pitman went to Sequachee Saturday.

The Sardia Sunday school met Sunday evening to get up a Christmas program.

J. L. Lewis went to Victoria Sunday evening. Wonder what for?

Well, well! I am so sorry that the singing school is out.

There was a certain young man looking sad Sunday evening. Wonder what about?

Some folks may say we are crazy and when they see this they will say we are sure enough. Briggs said he was ashamed of it, but I don't care for that. When it comes out in this week's paper he will say, what a smart wife I have got. Well I will close for fear this will find its final resting place in the waste basket.

INMAN.

Special to the News.

Inman is booming. All the Company's houses are being repaired and quite a number of people are moving in.

R. A. Patton is getting out some fine ore.

Miss Millie Moore, of Cedar Springs is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Gott.

Mrs. S. R. Ransom and Mrs. B. R. Farmer were visiting Mrs. Eph Prigmore Tuesday. Ask them if it rained that evening.

Mr. Killian, of Jasper was putting up some tomb stones at the Gott graveyard Tuesday.

Quite a number were going to sit up and watch the stars fall Tuesday night but failed to do so on account of something more penetrating falling.

Mr. Jim Kilgore said he didn't want to see any stars fall as the moon might start and if it did one of the Kilgores would be missing.

Thirty five went to Chattanooga, last Thursday to see the show.

Tom Harvis has been confined for several days with la grippe.

Mrs. John Spears, of Sequachee, was in town Saturday shopping.

W. L. Barber lost a fine horse oneday last week of blind staggers.

Mrs. W. A. Levan is very low with fever and not expected to live.

Rev. S. S. Catron, of Jasper was in town last Friday on his way to Dunlap.

Misses Ellen and Lillie Gott, of Oak Grove, were in the city Wednesday.

Rev. I. N. Knox and M. F. Harris, of Inman, were in the city last Thursday.

Mr. S. B. McMillen is doing some fine photograph work for our people.

Rev. Mr. McGregor preached at the Christian church Monday night.

When you see W. F. Price ask him how he likes cold turnip salad for supper.

Stewart & Alley will give 45c per bushel for corn in exchange for merchandise.

Mr. Dietzen, of South Pittsburg, was in the city last week delivering fruit trees.

Dr. E. A. Burnett and B. J. Bailey, of Looney's Creek, were in the city Wednesday.

Married last Thursday by G. W. Coburn, Esq., Mr. William Mosier to Miss Mary McGowan.

Rev. J. F. Hash preached at Mt. Olivet Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday, and at Red Hill at 3 p. m.

Mr. Henry McGowan who has been sick for some four or five weeks is not expected to recover.

Rev. M. K. Hollister, the new C. P. preacher is expected to arrive this week and preach next Sunday.

Bring up your chickens, eggs and butter. Highest market prices paid for same.

Stewart & Alley.

While other merchants give 40c for corn we will give 45c for it in trade for merchandise.

Stewart & Alley.

Photographing is apparently a standard business in this town judging from the amount of work which is being done here.

Miss Kemp Graham, who has had a severe attack of fever, suffered a relapse on Sunday, but more recent reports indicate that she is improving.

Dr. C. B. Fowlkes, of Jasper, the skilled dentist after a busy week, returned to Jasper Monday. As soon as his engagements permit he will return here. People whose teeth he has diagnosed and attended to, speak highly of him as being what he purports to be, a firstclass dentist.

The N. C. & St. L. R. R. Co. has put in a very fine improved scale at the depot, and Mr. O. W. Chastain our popular depot master, is as proud of it as a peacock. All he has to do now is to wheel the loaded truck onto it and weigh. No lifting required and that is the beauty of it.

Mr. A. O. Kelly and Miss Sarah Ables went to Sequachee county last Sunday. The former went to see his mother and the latter to visit Miss Lizzie Kelly.

Word has reached here that Monroe Roberson, of Bledsoe county, was met on the road near Dunlap by highwaymen who shot and killed his horse and robbed him of $3700 in cash.

Saturday night some of the boys got on a bender and had a good deal of fun shooting, etc. As a result E. L. Templeton was sent to Jasper to await the action of the grand jury for shooting at Mr. Canady.

Kelley's Ferry.

Special to the News:

Not much news this week.

Silas Powers is very sick with fever. Dr. McNabb is waiting on him.

Mr. Nancy Ritchie, of Stanley, was visiting her son, R. F. Ritchie at this place Friday and Saturday. Her daughter, Miss Alva and Mr. James Lusk, of Fairmount, will be married next Sunday.

Miss Minnie Hartman spent Saturday evening with Miss Mattie Newsome.

Mr. Willie Johnson, of Ga., was visiting relatives at this place the past few days.

Misses Belle Anderson and Mattie Newsome spent Sunday night with Miss Mary Powers.

Ha, ha! What a jolly times times the youngsters had down in Needmore. The cause of such a jolly time was a tacky party given by J. H. Sexton. I can't say who was the tackiest, but I can be safe in saying that Thomas Sexton were the highest stand up, turn down at the corner collar that was ever worn by anybody, and when he was spoken to he had to take his collar off to hear and see who the speaker was.

Mrs. Julia Newsome and Mr. and Mrs. Alec Anderson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alec McNabb Sunday.

Mr. J. L. McNabb spent Saturday night with the Newsome brothers.

J. E. Francis went to Stanley Sunday and returned Monday.

Mr. J. C. Bible was out on the mountain last week hunting his cattle. David White says he carried his geography for fear he would get lost. Mr. Bible says at sunset his home is always due east of the setting sun.

Samuel Ellis had a very bad accident a few days ago. He was riding some baby carriage wheels what some folks call a bicycle. He lost his balance when the wheels started for the river, and as luck would have it, he got them stopped just at the water side. There was little damage done.

Mr. Andy Cunningham, of Whitwell, was visiting relatives here last Thursday.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT.

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that ensures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c at W. B. Ketner's, Whitwell, and all dealers.

McNABB MINES.

Special to the News.

Mr. Allen McNabb, of Savannah, and Mr. Silas Anderson, of Kelley's Ferry was visiting McNabb Mines Sunday.

Mr. J. Fry passed through our vicinity Sunday.

Mr. William Johnson was visiting relatives at Kelley's Ferry Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Frank Ellis was visiting his best girl Sunday, but he only goes every other Sunday.

Mr. John Sexton and son was visiting in Kelley's Ferry Sunday.

Mr. Silas Powers has been very sick for the last two days but he seems to be getting better now.

The two young Mormon preachers seem to have gained a strong foothold among the girls of Kelley's Ferry.

The great poetess of Kelley's Ferry, Miss Ellen Newsome, as she sits before the gleaming landscape, collecting the beautiful lines to be read by many boys and girls, seemingly is as merry as a bird on a bright May morning; but ah! her heart with sorrow is filled which will never be banished until she wins the carpenter of McNabb Mines, the fellow that stole her many days ago.

Mr. K. Hartman has abolished the idea of going to see his best girl three a week, so he only goes twice a day.
